SERRA VOCATION PRAYER CHALICE

Vocation Prayer

O Father, you desire all of us to be happy. Stir up the grace of a religious vocation in the hearts of many men and women. Grant to them the willingness and generosity to give of themselves, their lives, their time and their talents to the service of Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord and Savior, and to His Holy Church. May more men and women go forth as priests, deacons, brothers and sisters to bring the truths of our Catholic faith to all others so that soon they, too, may know You better and love You more...and serving You, be truly happy. Amen.

Thank you for praying for vocations.

PERSEVERANCE

The theme of persistence and faithfulness pervades the readings and Gospel today.

The widow, who in that time and place was without power as a woman, did not allow her culture's mores to prevent her from seeking justice. Finally, the judge gave in to her relentless pestering and granted her request.

"In our modern day pragmatic culture which demands quick and preferably easy solutions to every problem, we may find it difficult to recognize the steady, patient, ever-active, and surprising work of God. We seek surface results; God transforms the depths that define the surface. When we ask, God answers-sometimes quickly and obviously, but often with a far-reaching love whose fruits we are slow to see."

Magnificat

Remain Faithful. God heeds those who pray. He rewards our persistence.

October 15 – 16 2016
TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ISN'T KNOWLEDGE A WONDERFUL THING!!!

"You've been called by name!"

Our first reading puts us right in the middle of an action scene. The Israelites are faced with some big time decisions. They have to determine whether to enter into battle with an enemy. Moses decides that he is going to totally lean on the power of God. So we learn that Moses depends on two other people, Aaron and Hur, to raise his arms to give Joshua the victory in battle. So let's take a moment and look at what it took for the Israelites to win the battle.

It's interesting how in scripture we hear that "when two or more are gathered, there I am in their midst." It seems that many times over in scripture, we are called to community. We even have expressions worked into our colloquial language. "Many hands make light the work."

Well, the Church community is the same. We need everyone to do a little something for the benefit of all. We are very blessed here at Sacred Heart to have the privilege of serving many needs within the community. We have volunteer opportunities within our ministries to suit all types of schedules. This weekend we are inviting every parish member to prayerfully consider where they might share their time and talent with the greater church community.

There are benefits ---

- 1) you will meet other members of the church family,
- 2) you will often find yourself growing in holiness simply by sharing time with others with similar values,
- 3) you will find yourself greeting people at Mass and they will know you by name,
- 4) you may find that some of the benefits are everlasting.

So I am inviting you to consider one of the following:

Altar Servers – 4th grade and up – assist priests and deacons at the altar

Altar Rosary Society – monthly meeting – friendship, prayer and service

Baptismal Bibs – sew bibs used at infant Baptism

Collection Counters – monthly – 2 hour commitment

Columbiettes – women's prayer/service and friendship. Meets monthly with additional service projects.

Eucharistic Adoration – one hour of prayer per week – open to all

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion – at Masses/to the Sick – over 18 years of age and can make your own schedule.

Faith Formation/Bible Studies RCIA/RCIA for children

Religious Education

– teachers of prayer, learning and growing in our faith

Garden Committee – all "green thumbs welcome"

Hospital Ministry – 3 hours a month/2 day training required

Hospitality Committee – baking and enjoy gatherings of the parish – great way to meet people.

Jail & Prison Ministry – prayer and service

Knights of Columbus – Men's group - prayer, service and friendship

Legion of Mary – once a week meeting for prayer, service and friendship – auxiliary membership also available.

Ministers of Hospitality – greet people as they enter the church

Ministers of the Word (Readers) – proclaim God's Word at our Masses

Music Ministry – Lift your voice or offer your musical talent at our Masses

Our Lady of Fatima, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Pilgrimage of the 2 Hearts – prayer ministries

St. Vincent De Paul Society – Care for the poor of the community: home visits, pantry, greet people in our center

COME ONE – COME ALL – How are you being called?
