Come to the Feast

The Prophet Isaiah speaks of the "Lord of hosts" preparing a rich feast to which "all peoples" are invited. As in the First Reading, the beginning of the Gospel stresses the lavish preparations that were made and the invitations that were sent for a great banquet.
The final line, "Many are invited, but few are chosen," speaks to us all; it's a warning intended to help us recognize the divine invitations we may be ignoring.

As St. Paul languishes in prison, he contrasts both living in abundance and being in need, being well fed and going hungry. The Philippians have been generous to him and he is grateful to them. However, when abundance gives way to need and comfort yields to bare necessity, the faith path he walks remains stable and unshaken. To him all things are doable and tolerable because of Christ who provides the strength to embrace abundance without pride and endure want without resentment.

MOTHER BONIFACE SPIRITUALITY CENTER, 3501 Solly Avenue in northeast Philadelphia is offering a Tuesday evening program "Contemporary Questions About The Last Things" on November 7, 14, and 21, beginning at 7 pm and concluding at 8:30 pm. In November, we remember our beloved dead and celebrate All Saints Day. Many people think that death is the end of one's existence. They may live for the moment or work to usher in the kingdom here on earth, but they are not living with the hope of final resurrection. What difference does Christian hope make? What is the goal of our human existence? Why do Catholics reject reincarnation, and how is this related to the Incarnation and to our growth in faith and holiness? This short course will consider these and related topics (e.g. assisted suicide, purgatory, cremation.)
Presenter: Sr. Sara Butler, MSBT, S.T.L., Ph.D. has taught dogmatic theology for over 30 years

Fee: Free Will Offering
