EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

A Blessed Easter

Exult, let them exult, the hosts of heaven,
exult, let Angel ministers of God exult,
let the trumpet of salvation
sound aloud our mighty King's triumph!
Be glad, let earth be glad, as glory floods her,
ablaze with light from her eternal King,
let all corners of the earth be glad,
knowing an end to gloom and darkness.
Rejoice, let Mother Church also rejoice,
arrayed with the lightning of His glory,
let this holy building shake with joy,
filled with the mighty voices of the peoples.

As we rejoice in the Resurrection of the Lord let us give Him thanks and praise for bringing us out of darkness and death into the glory of new life.

May the peace of the risen Lord dwell in your hearts and your homes on this most joyful day and throughout the glorious season of Easter.

SERRA VOCATION PRAYER
CHALICE

Prayer for Vocations

Thank you, Lord, for all the many great and wonderful gifts you give to our family. Help us to live each day with joy and humility. Keep us totally dedicated to serving you. Teach us to recognize the many ways you make your Spirit known. Then help each of us to accept your gift – the grace to answer your call to form, strengthen and expand the Body of Christ. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The Altar Rosary Society needs a few extra hands – Perhaps you have heard the saying, “Many hands make light the work.” Well, there are many small altar linens that are used at our Masses. These linens are ironed so they look neat and clean during our Masses and there are many volunteers that make that happen. Turn on a good TV show, put up the ironing board and the iron and before you know it, you’ve ironed enough cloths for the week. We could use your help as little as once a month. For more details please call Carol Ward at (609)267-4811. Your Church family needs you!

Jesus is risen! He is risen for Mary Magdalene, the compassionate woman who stood side by side with Mary at the Cross!

He is risen for Peter, who denied Him but who will lead the Church in its new resurrected life!

Have Mercy on Us – a Volunteer Opportunity!

Did you know that a large number of incarcerated people actually suffer from a mental health disorder. Once on appropriate medication, these offenders come to understand appropriate behavior and can re-enter our society as well-balanced persons. The problem that has existed for a long time is that people being released from prison are usually without medical insurance. So they become well-balanced in prison and upon release are off their medications. This system doomed to defeat must be corrected.

That is where the Burlington County Council of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul needs your help. We have been able to form a collaborative agreement with many groups (Board of Chosen Freeholders, County Social Services, Jail/Prison administration etc.) to work together so that an offender being discharged has the medical care that they need to help prevent this avenue of reoccurring imprisonment. When someone has to go to jail to get medical care there is something terribly wrong. If you would be able to volunteer one day a month – a Wednesday – from 1pm to 3pm – to assist offenders to fill out Medicaid forms please continue to read this!!! You would have to be a person of a clean criminal history and be willing to be present in an all-purpose room in the jail or prison. You would go through an orientation so that you would have a comfort level prior to the beginning of this volunteer activity. This is a secure environment so you will not be at risk. Still interested? Did you feel that n.u.d.g.e. (Notice the Urge to Do Good on this Earth)? Call Marge McGinley at (609)271-8310 or svdpmcginley@gmail.com.

April 15 – April 16 2017
EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

ISN'T KNOWLEDGE A WONDERFUL THING!!

Easter Sunday – celebrating the newness of life!

Easter Sunday brings out all the finest clothes, bright shiny faces of children as they wear their fanciest clothes, well except for the little chocolate marks from the first bites of candy found in their baskets earlier that morning!

Today we celebrate and welcome so many of our Catholic family members “home.” From the moment we are baptized, we become a member of this incredibly large family. Each person significant and each member missed when they are not with us in worship. So today, if you are reading this column, please consider yourself “most welcome,” whether you have been with us every week or if you haven’t stopped by to visit Our Lord as of late. We, welcome you home, with the love of a family member.

Easter Sunday has so many choices of readings and so many of them reference beginning a new way of life. All of us know that life can give us the most amazing moments and it can also deliver the most shocking events. Our lives are all full of dying and rising again. Our Mass celebrates the Paschal Mystery, the dying and rising of Jesus Christ. When we look at the life of Jesus we realize that for every death there will be a resurrection and for every time of sorrow there will be a time of joy.

As Catholic Christians during this Easter Season, which concludes on Pentecost Sunday, June 4th of this year, we are invited to roll away the stone of our own sinfulness and to follow the Risen Jesus. We are commissioned to spread the Word of God just as the apostles were so long ago. So how do we do that?

Let’s begin with love! In one of the recommended Gospel readings for today we hear the story of Mary Magdalene and the other Mary going to the tomb to “serve” Our Lord by caring for his deceased body. As they reached the tomb they witnessed a miracle – the Lord had risen! Oftentimes in the readings in scripture you will notice that it is those who serve that have opportunities to see miracles (big and small.) The two women at the tomb were in fact the first to know of the Resurrection. The servants at the wedding feast were the first to witness the initial miracle of Jesus’ ministry. Those who choose to serve at our Masses on Easter Sunday see the miracle of “family” hundreds of times throughout the day.

All of our lives can feel like a roller coaster ride with the ups and downs that life presents. As Catholics we are anchored firmly on that roller coaster ride with a depth of faith in the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We learn from the life of Jesus Christ to depend on the Father and His great love for each one of us and on the Holy Spirit to inspire our daily walk.

Today we celebrate the gift of our Savior as His resurrection assures all of us of eternal life. Let’s all follow the lead of the women who found the empty tomb and let us all “rejoice” as we share the Good News.

Marge McGinley, Pastoral Administrator
