SCHOOL SUPPLIES NEEDED

We hope you are still enjoying your summer. However, the opening of school is just around the corner. Once again, your Sacred Heart Conference of The Society of St. Vincent dePaul would like to help our struggling families by providing their children with school supplies. We would like to provide a book bag containing the following items: pencils, pens, loose leaf paper, spiral bound notebooks, folders, composition books, rulers, crayons, colored pencils, glue, and pencil boxes. We especially need BOOK BAGS. As always, please know that we greatly appreciate your continued generosity and are blessed by your caring.

This back-to-school program in its 10th year has prepared hundreds of needy children for another year of learning.

Please note: Donations may be dropped off in the food bins at the back of the church, at the St. Vincent dePaul center, or pantry and should be received no later than, Sunday, August 27. Our projected numbers for year indicate a need for more secondary items and bags. We also need to supply for slightly more girls than boys.

Again, heart felt thanks for your contributions.

If you have any questions please call Sherry Papale at 609-261-0652.

The SVDP Pantry is in need of the following:

Peanut Butter, Spaghetti Sauce, Jelly, Meals in a Can, Canned Soup, Canned Fruit, Tuna, Baked Beans, and Canned Vegetables.

If you would like to make a monetary donation please make checks payable to:

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT de PAUL
Thank you!

One Body in Christ-The Annual Catholic Appeal Once again, we are being asked to participate in the Annual Catholic Appeal throughout the Diocese of Trenton. Each year the Bishop seeks the support of all of the members of the Diocese to further the work of our ministries. Each of us has a vital part in all we do in Christ's name, and each of us can share in all we do with a gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal. Our single Act of Faith propels the works of love that build up our Church. You can make this happen with a gift to the ACA. Please take a moment and truly reflect on any help you can give. Many of you have already received a letter in the mail asking for your prayers and support for this Appeal. Pledge cards can also be found at all entrances to the Church. Thank you for the prayer, time and attention that you give to this request.

OUR PROMISE TO PROTECT The Diocese of Trenton is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishops' Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors. If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the diocesan Abuse Hotline: 1-888-296-2965 or via e-mail at abuseline@dioceseoftrenton.org The Diocese of Trenton reports any allegations of sexual abuse to the appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anyone with an allegation is also encouraged to provide that information to local law enforcement authorities.

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be sharp, deep and crippling. You may feel a deep numbness and may not be able to name the pain or recognize any of the symptoms. It can also have a devastating impact on the father or grandparents of the aborted child and friend/s of the mother. You do not have to continue to hide in shame and fear. Rachel's Vineyard's Retreat is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. It is designed to help both women and men experience the mercy and compassion of God.

If you have suffered through an abortion and have isolated yourself from healing and forgiveness, you might consider attending one of our retreat weekends. For more information, contact Judy Warkiewicz @ 732-536-6871. All inquiries are strictly confidential.

The Grapes of Wrath Project

by Deacon Jim Casa

Interest is growing for this summer's "read the book-see the movie" project and you are invited to begin your reading of John Steinbeck's epic novel, The Grapes of Wrath. So, as this hot summer continues, make some time to relax with this stirring story of the Joad's family excursion into the heart of America and discover what they find. What you, yourself, may find is a new understanding of what we call, the 'spirit of America.' In order to fully appreciate Steinbeck's work, let's look at a third significant theme of the novel: The Dignity of Wrath.

The Joad family members stand as exemplary figures in their refusal to be broken by the circumstances that conspire against them. At every turn, Steinbeck seems intent on showing their dignity and honor; he emphasizes the importance of maintaining self-respect in order to survive spiritually. Nowhere is this more evident than at the end of the novel. The Joads have suffered incomparable losses over the course of the story. At a point the novel after the family has faced their greatest challenge, the Joads managed to rise above hardship to perform an act of unsurpassed kindness and generosity to someone who has less than they do, showing that the Joads have not lost their sense of the value and the wonder and the gift of human life.

Steinbeck makes a clear connection in his novel between dignity and rage. As long as people maintain a sense of injustice—a sense of anger against those who seek to undercut their pride in themselves—they will never lose their dignity.

So, friends, continue your reading of The Grapes of Wrath and save the date, Friday evening - September 15 (7pm) - when we will gather to see John Ford's classic movie version (starring Henry Fonda) and discuss both novel and film. Look for updates about the novel in future Parish Bulletins.

The Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary gave service to our school for many, many years. The sisters are now inviting us to assist them by contributing $25.00 and purchasing a chance to be entered in many drawings from October 2017 through June 2018, 300 drawings $50 to $1000. You will also be remembered in a monthly Mass for benefactors and in the prayers of the IHM Sisters. Barb Stellwag, one of the faithful members of the Silver Circle, will be selling tickets from now until October 1st. Proceeds Benefit the Sister's Retirement Fund. Please call Barb if you would like to support this cause. Barb's phone number is 609-702-1146. Thank you for your kind support of the IHM Sisters!
